

Communicate Science

Name: _____

Date: _____

Driving Question

What will our oceans look like in 100 years?

Creative Story Goals:

- The story should be entertaining or funny.
- The story should include all of the following:
 - How has humanity used resources in the following century?
 - What mistakes were made?
 - What ideas about responsible management of resources from 100 years ago should humanity have used?

Research:

Story Outline:

Communicate Science

Creative Story

Rubric and Grade Sheet

Points Awarded	3	2	1	0
The Ocean	Student presented a scientifically accurate description of Earth's oceans 100 years from now.	Student presented a mostly accurate description of Earth's oceans 100 years from now.	Student presented a somewhat accurate description of Earth's oceans 100 years from now.	Student presented a description with glaring inaccuracies and missing key concepts about Earth's oceans 100 years from now.
Responsible Management	Student presented an accurate and realistic depiction of impacts of mistakes made in responsible management.	Student presented a mostly accurate and realistic depiction of impacts of mistakes made in responsible management.	Student presented a somewhat accurate and realistic depiction of impacts of mistakes made in responsible management.	Student presented an inaccurate or unrealistic depiction of the impacts of mistakes made in responsible management.
Story	Student presented a creative and informative story.	Student presented an informative story.	Student presented a creative story.	Student did not present a creative or informative story.
Speech	Student shared his or her story and spoke in a loud, clear voice.	Student shared his or her story and spoke in a clear voice.	Student shared his or her story.	Student did not share his or her story.

Teacher Comments: